Pre-School Summer Program Is Announced

A first grade orientation program has been planned for children of Appomattox County who will start to school next fall.

This program will be held at the Appomattox Primary School from June 22 through July 31. The boys and girls must be six years of age on or before October 1, 1970 in order to attend, according to Eugene W. Peyton Director of Instrction.

Transportation will be available from central locations within the county. Parents will be notified where the busses will stop to pick up children.

The school will be in session from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. and a light lunch will be provided. There is no cost to participants. Registration will be closed as soon as enrollment for four classrooms is completed.

Registration forms should be returned to the Appomattox Primary School by June 1, 1970.

Poppy Day

Each year the American Legion Auxiliary ask our fellow Americans to wear over their hearts the red flower as a gesture of remembrance for those who died in America's defense.

The basic purpose of Poppy Day is to offer the American public an opportunity to honor their war dead while donating funds to and the disabled veterans and their families.

Poppies will be distributed by Unit 104 American Legion Auxiliary and their helpers over the week end of Memorial Day.

Agent Will Speak Monday

R. B. (Rube) Hudgins, couny agent in Appomattox from 1926-55 will be a featured speaker Monday, [illegible] in Crewe for the dedication of a highway marker to T. O. Sandy, first farm demonstration agent in Virginia. The Rev. Joseph Stanley, minister at New Hope Baptist Churchand for many years Spiritual Life Advisor to 4-H Clubs in Va., a 4-H All-Star and active in State Conservation Camps and State 4-H Club Congresses at VPI will give the invocation. Also on the program, J. A. Smith present extension agent, Appomattox. During a visit to the Times-Virginian Tuesday retired agent Hudgins was recalling his first days in the county, including county roads with axle-deep mud and snow from December to March. Mr. Hudgins spent many years and much effort to help farmers convert from a one-crop (tobacco) economy to a varied farm economy.

Forestry Office Opens

Appomattox County Forester Warren Taylor (at desk)and Chief Fire Warden David Smith (standing) have opened an office on Main Street (second floor) in the Harwood Building formerly occupied by the Times-Virginian. Farmers, landowners and others are invited to stop in for information about tree planting, sales of timber and pulpwood and other related matters. Office telephone number is 352-7279.

Two Valedictorians Are Named To Represent The Unified School

The Guidance Department of the Appomattox County High School has released the names of the honor graduates for the school year 1969-70. Class rank for graduating classes has always been determined by the academic averages for the nine semesters of work done in the 8th, 9th, 10th, 11th grades and the first semester of the senior year. This year, because of the unification of the two high schools in mid-year, there are two groups of honor graduates -- one from Former Appomattox High School and one from Carver-Price High School.

The four highest ranking graduates from Appomattox High School are:

Georgie Belle Brannan, valedictorian, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. P. Brannan of Rt. 1, Appomattox. Georgie has been a member of the Beta Club, Spanish Club, Latin Club, and the newspaper staff. She participated on Klassroom Kwiz this year, representing the Beta Club of the high school. She is a member of Appomattox Court House Presbyterian Church. Her hobbies include painting and reading. After graduation, Georgie plans to enter the Navy and continue her education while in the service.

Paul Douglas Harvey, salutatorian, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Harvey of 1st Street, Appomattox, Virginia. Paul has been a member of the annual staff, Pep Club, Beta Club, Latin Club, and Monogram Club. He is president of the Beta Club this year and past president of his class in the ninth and tenth grades. He was a member of the varsity football team, varsity basketball team, and varsity baseball team. Paul is a member of the Appomattox Court House Presbyterian Church. He plans to attend Hampden-Sydney College beginning in the fall of 1970.

David Mark Schrock, tied for third place, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Duane B. Schrock of 200 Sunnydale Avenue, Appomattox, Virginia. David has been a member of the annual staff, Drama Club, Beta Club, Latin Club and Monogram Club. He was reporter for the Beta Club in the eleventh grade and president of his class that same year. He participated in varsity football, varsity basketball, and varsity baseball. He is a member of First United Methodist Church in Lynchburg. David plans to attend Washington and Lee University in the fall.

Thomas Ragland Terry, tied for third place, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph B. Terry of Church Street, Appomattox, Virginia. He has been a member of the Peg Club, Beta Club, newspaper staff, Spanish Club, Latin Club and the Boy Scouts. He was reporter for the 8th grade 4-H Club and is president of the Spanish Club this year. He was reporter for his 9th Grade Class. Tommy is a member of the Appomattox Court House Presbyterian Church. His hobbies include playing the piano and the guitar. He plans to attend the College of William and Mary in the fall.

The three highest ranking graduates from Carver-Price High School are:

Shirley Ann Walker, valedictorian, is the daughter of Mrs Gracie Walker of Rt. 1, Pamplin, Virginia. She is vice-president of the National Honor Society, a member of the Math-Science Club, secretary of the Dramatic Club, financial secretary of the Student Council 1969, and advertising manager of the Carver - Pricetonian Newspaper. Outstanding awards received in the Math-Science Club have been first place winner in mathematics at the District Conference and first place winner in geometry. Her hobbies are reading and sewing. She is a member of Mt. Pleasant Baptist Church of Hixburg, Virginia. Shirley will continue her education at Johnson C. Smith University in Charlotte, N. C., majoring in mathematics.

Ava Keene, salutatorian, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Keene of Baltimore, Maryland, and the niece of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse King of Appomattox, with whom she resides. She is co-secretary of the Student Council, co-historian of Future Homemakers of America, co-editor of A. C.H.S. Newspaper, co-secretary of the Senior Class, a member of the Senior Tri-Hi-Y, a member of the Cheering Squad of 1970, a member of the Math - Science Club, and treasurer of the Dramatic Club. Ava has been the recipient of a Certificate for Excellence in Chemistry and a letter and certificate for membership on the Cheering Squad. Her hobbies are reading and sports. She is a member of Sulphur Springs Baptist Church of Prospect. Ava will attend Morgan State College, Baltimore, Maryland, and major in physical education.

John Nathaniel Garrett, third honor graduate, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John N. Garrett Sr. of Rt. 2, Gladstone, Virginia. He is co-president of the Senior Class of 1970, a member of the Student Council, president of the Math-Science Club, president of the Dramatic Club, vice-president of the National Honor Society, Varsity C, secretary, member of the Varsity Basketball Team 1968-70, member of the Jr. Varsity Basketball Team, and captain of the Varsity Baseball Team 1969. John has received awards for Outstanding Participation in the District Math-Science Conference, third place in Mathematics in the Conference and a Perfect Attendance Award. His hobbies are sports, reading, and travel. He will continue his studies at Virginia State College, Petersburg, Va., majoring in history. John plans to enter the teaching profession.

Primary P-TA

The Appomattox Primary School PTA will meet tonight (Thursday) at 8 p.m. for installation of officers for the coming year.

ACHS PTA

The Appomattox County High School PTA will meet on Monday, May 25, at 7:30 p.m. in the Cafeteria at the High School. This will be the final meeting of this school year.

Mr. Earl J. Smith, Superintendent of Schools, will be in charge of the program for the evening. He plans to discuss plans for the new school and to show slides of the proposed building. All parents, teachers and interested persons are invited to attend.

Home Tour Sunday 3-5 p.m.

Four homes will be open to the public Sunday afternoon from 3 to 5 p.m. during the Spring Tour of Homes sponsored by Delta Zeta Chapter, Beta Sigma Phi. Included is the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph King on Ferguson Avenue. Others include "Eldon", home of Mr. and Mrs. Francis Tyler on Route 26; Mr. and Randolph Smith's home on "Loop Road", State Route 656 (see inside page); and Mr. and Mrs. Leonard G. Anderson's home on Rt. 460 east of the town of Appomattox (see inside page). All visitors are requested to wear low heeled shoes. Refreshments will be served at "Eldon" and tickets are available from any sorority member – Traveller's Inn, Caldwell's Motor Court, Elliott Florist or Times-Virginian. The McDearmon home will not be included in the tour because of illness in the family. In case of rain the tour will be cancelled.

Park Records 129,789 Visitors

Virginia travel attractions enjoyed an unprecedented 12.8 percent increase in visitation in 1969 over 1968, according to figures just released by Roy A. Moon, president of the Appomattox County Chamber of Commerce.

The 12.8 percent increase – a record – is the finding of the Virginia State Travel Service's annual survey of visitation at the state's more prominent historic, scenic and recreational attractions and events. Yearly patronage at attractions and events is regarded as one of the most reliable indices to travel in Virginia.

Appomattox Court House National Historical Park, with a 3.8% increase in visitation is among those showing a gain. In 1969, 129, 789 visitors were recorded with 125,019 in 1968, a gain of 4,770.

Red Hill Shrine, home of Patrick Henry, near Brookneal recorded a loss during 1969 from a high of 7,859 in 1968 to 2,324 in 1969, a difference of 535 visitors.

Sayler's Creek Battlefield Park, near Rice, Va., recorded an increase of 156 visitors, from 1,020 in 1968 to 1,175 in 1969 or an increase of 15.3%.

The Blue Ridge Parkway recorded an increase of 724,374 travelers in 1969 for a total of 11,865,097 over 1968's figures of 11,140,723 or an increase, percentage-wise of 6.5.

Eighty-four non profit attractions and events were queried by questionnaire. All responded, with 80 providing complete information requested.
